GRIMES COUNTY CEMETERIES

BOOK THREE

Which Covers the Southernmost Part of the County

Compiled by John R. Maxwell for the

GRIMES COUNTY HISTORICAL COMMISSION

Based on old records, grave markings, and memory, every attempt has been made to compile as accurate a listing of grave sites as possible within Grimes County. If errors were made in the course of our task, we would like to apologize, for none were intentional. Our only goal is to, in some small way, preserve the history of our county, if only in the listing of those who lived and died here.
To Alixe McAlpine Taylor, a devoted Member of the Grimes County Historical Commission who passed away September 26, 1995, and is buried in the Fairview Cemetery near White Hall, we dedicate this Book Three of Grimes County Graves.

The Grimes County Historical Commission

Genesis 50:26

So Joseph died, being an hundred and ten years old and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

ALLEN PLACE CEMETERY

Copied January 7, 1995, by Gail Allen and John R. Maxwell

To reach cemetery, take HW 149 west out of Anderson, turn left on County Road 403, and go 1.3 miles to a gate on the left (black mailbox in shape of a barn is on the right). Go through the gate, and follow drive to the home of Gail Allen. The cemetery is at the back of her property. She was told that a family traveling a road that once ran beside this cemetery buried their child who died of yellow fever at this spot. There are several graves, but only one had a legible marker.

JIMERSON, Delar
Daughter of John Jimerson
Died age 15 years

There was another inscription that was almost worn away. All that could be read was “Weep not ___ for me, ___ am w____ in____ for____”. One possible reading for this inscription is “Weep not father for me I am waiting in heaven for thee”. A small piece of another marker appeared to read “NEA__TL___WD CHEAT”. Near both of these markers there was a sunken impression about the size of an infant’s or child’s grave. There were several graves marked with field stones with no inscription.

BAKER FAMILY CEMETERY

Copied by Marcus Mallard and rechecked by John R. Maxwell

To reach cemetery, from the intersection of HW 105 and 1774, go north on 1774 to the first driveway on the right, which is the entrance to “The Cedars”. Going down the drive until the house can be seen, the cemetery can be observed to the left with a road leading to it.

BAKER CEMETERY

Going south on FM 1774 toward Plantersville, past County Road 313 on the right and County Road 213 on the left, travel a short distance to drive on the right. On that drive there once stood a second Baker Cemetery. Recently, the property on which the cemetery was located was bulldozed, completely destroying the cemetery. The Bakers buried in this cemetery were related to the Bakers buried in the family cemetery near Plantersville on “The Cedars” ranch.

BARNES CEMETERY

This cemetery is located off FM 1774 .8 miles from the intersection of FM 2818 and 1774 near Anderson. There will be a driveway on the left side of the highway that will lead to the old Barnes home. The cemetery is southwest of the house. This property, currently owned by Oliver Hill is closed to the public.

People buried here would include the following. * indicates a possible burial.

BARNES, James W. born October 5, 1815 in Sparta, Georgia, married Caroline Greene October 24, 1839, died October 21, 1892 Anderson, Grimes Co., Texas. During the Civil War General Barnes served in Company 17 Batt. Texas State Troops. His wife, Caroline died May 16, 1901, in San Antonio and was buried there.

BARNES, Mark S. born 1848, died May 21, 1865, son of James W. and Caroline Barnes. He was a member of Company K Terry’s Regt. He died in the Confederate General Hospital in Houston, Texas.

BARNES, Thomas, son of James W. and Caroline Barnes born in 1855 and died after 1860 and before 1870.

BARNES, Vera daughter of James W. and Caroline Barnes born December 1859 and died after 1860 and before 1870.

LAWRENCE, Nancy Porter born March 19, 1830 died February 5, 1850 wife of James Lawrence.

*BARNES, John T. born 1833 in Georgia died Dec. 31, 1861. He served in Co. E 4th Regt. C.S.A. and died in Richmond, VA. Therefore I doubt he is buried here. He was listed in the J. W. Barnes household in the 1860 census.

In regards to the graves listed above, let me make the following observations. The grave of Nancy Porter Lawrence is the only tombstone. There is one other vault type grave with no inscription. Near the two is another grave marked with an upright fieldstone.

According to tradition and the book “Saga of Anderson” General Barnes and his son Mark were buried side by side.

The grave of Nancy Porter Lawrence is a vault type grave. She was survived by her husband James and son John William Lawrence. In the 1850 census they were listed as follows: James Lawrence age 34 born Kentucky and John W. Lawrence age 1 born Texas and W.H. Lawrence age 14 born Kentucky.
It is possible that Thomas Barnes, Vera Barnes and H.C. Searcy died in the yellow fever that swept across Grimes County in 1867.

Various records on the Barnes family.

Note the family members missing from census to census. Eugenia C. Barnes, listed on the 1850 and 1860 census is not on the 1870 census with her family as she was married to R. Quinney.

Mark S. Barnes, listed on the 1850 and 1860 census is not listed with his family as he died during the Civil War, May 21, 1865.
Zenobia Barnes is listed in the 1850 and 1860 census under the name Barnes. In the 1870 census she is listed under the name Searcy. She married H.C. Searcy on June 27, 1866. She later married C.C. Gibbs, December 8, 1870. They were living in San Antonio, Bexar County, Texas as of February 6, 1900 when they and her sister Eugenia Quinney disposed of their share of the property of J.W. Barnes. The widow, Caroline Greene Barnes disposed of her share as well.

Thomas Barnes listed in the 1860 census age 5. He is not listed in the 1870 census.

Vera Barnes age 7 months in 1860 census. As the census was taken July 15, she was probably born December 1859. Not listed in the 1870 census.

Eva Barnes listed on the 1870 census. She married Benjamin Johnson Hill. She was born October 25, 1860 and died July 6, 1936. She and her husband were buried in the Odd Fellow's Cemetery in Anderson, Texas.

DENNIS BRYANT CEMETERY

The Dennis Bryant Cemetery had its beginning at the close of the nineteenth century as a small portion of land belonging to Dennis Bryant, located on State Highway 105 East. This land was sold to a group of citizens of their community in 1910, who organized and elected trustees of the cemetery. In May 1980, the association elected Dr. J. T. Ashford chairman of the committee on improvements and upkeep. Improvements such as building a road through the acreage encouraged Mrs. Marie Morrison to erect an entrance to the cemetery in memory of her late husband and her parents. In May 1981, a member of the association and grandson of the late Dennis Bryant gave the cemetery an acre of land just east of the original two acres. (From HERITAGE AND PROGRESS, A HISTORY OF GRIMES COUNTY, TEXAS, 1982)

To reach cemetery, traveling from Navasota toward Plantersville, turn right of HW 105.

COAX BERRY CEMETERY
BLACK

Information for history of Coax Berry Church from late Sister Fannie Bradley, who was a slave from Mississippi. She slipped away and came to Texas with her twelve children. Their home was across the road from the Coax Berry Cemetery -- known as the Stoneham Plantation. It was customary for the slaves to slip away and pray, and they selected as their praying ground a thicket across the road from their home. When slavery was abolished, she and her family were given five acres of land for a cemetery and church. From a history of the church written by Ada McDowell, HERITAGE AND PROGRESS, HISTORY OF GRIMES COUNTY, TEXAS, 1982, compiled and edited by the Grimes Historical Commission.

Church was organized 1886. Cemetery is beside church, off FM 2445. Oldest marker grave found by enumerator, John R. Maxwell, who copied cemetery January 21, 1995, was Lizzie Stafford, born 1845, died January 27, 1888.

COURTNEY CEMETERY

Historical Marker on Grounds of Courtney Cemetery: "Located on land which is adjacent to the 1873 subdivision of Courtney, known as McAlpine Town, this cemetery was established by developer Dougald McAlpine 1795 - 1876. The oldest documented grave in the cemetery is that of W. S. Draper 1828 - 1873. There are some unmarked graves which may date from an earlier period. Those interred here include community leaders, descendants of early settlers, and veterans of the Civil War, World War I, World War II, and Korea. A cemetery association, formed in 1971, cares for the historic graveyard. Erected 1988."

Turn off FM 2 in Courtney onto a paved road to right, which runs beside or near old public school (two-story brick building). Continue down road to first road to right. Follow it to cemetery.

COURTNEY CEMETERY

BLACK

The Courtney Cemetery for the Black People is located on a hill 1 1/2 miles west of Hwy 6 and about 1/2 mile from FM 2. The east side of the cemetery was given to the community by Mr. Dougald McAlpine. The west side was given to the community by the Keelan family in the 1970’s. The west side is full of graves which no longer have markers or any way to identify those that are buried there. We do know that the cemetery has been in use since about 1870.” From HERITAGE AND PROGRESS, HISTORY OF GRIMES COUNTY, TEXAS, 1982.

To reach cemetery, turn off FM 2 onto road that turns right beside the Old Courtney School. Follow road to first road to the right. Turn and follow to cemetery. White and Black cemeteries are side by side. The Black cemetery is second.

This listing was made December 29, 1994.

FAHEY CEMETERY (WALNUT GROVE)

To reach the approximate site of this cemetery, go south on HW 6 from Navasota. After you cross Grassy Creek, you will see a mobile home park also named Grassy Creek. Turn left onto the access road and continue across the north lane of HW 6 onto County Road 317. This road will end at two gates. Go through the gate to the right onto property owned by the Boy Scouts. Follow pasture road to the first cattle guard. The graves will be to the left of the cattle guard.

This property was owned by Martin Joseph Fahey born Oct. 1, 1837, died January 25, 1925, who was buried there, but on February 2, 1943, his body was removed to Oakland Cemetery in Navasota and placed in Block Q. Other graves were removed as well.

I understand that some graves were left undisturbed. Some of them include the following. I drove out there Feb. 1997 and found nothing.

FAHEY, Anna died July 3, 1908 aged 19 years 1 month, daughter of Martin Joseph and Annie Cordelia Calhoun Fahey.

FAHEY, Infant son died 1980, son Martin Joseph and Annie Cordelia Calhoun Fahey.

Grave believed to be in SW area
Died 1923 (?)

Somewhere to the left of McAlpine fenced lot was a mott of trees. Inside this mott were four graves. Two of these were children of slaves. There were also two adults. The first was that of a woman traveling in a covered wagon from an eastern state to West Texas. She became critically ill and died as they camped nearby. The last grave was of an unknown person. The graves were not marked, but the adult graves were enclosed by a split rail fence about four feet high.

GREEN VALLEY CEMETERY
BLACK

Cemetery visited by Arthur Buchanan and John R. Maxwell on May 20, 1995. According to Buchanan, the cemetery was probably last used in early 1900’s, when he was a young boy. The cemetery could date to the mid 1800’s.

In HERITAGE AND PROGRESS, A HISTORY OF GRIMES COUNTY, TEXAS, Mary Birdwell listed cemetery in “Cemeteries for Blacks in Grimes County”.

To reach site of cemetery, take FM 3090 out of Navasota. From the intersection of FM 3455 and 3090 for 1.9 miles past the Green Valley Church on the left at County Road 404. Continue for .4 mile, then turn left at cattle guard on left, following drive past two houses on right, then a building on left (where Buchanan family holds reunions). Cemetery is in fenced area across drive from this building on land owned by Arthur and Lizzie Buchanan who live on FM 3090.

JOEL GREENWOOD CEMETERY

One of the oldest burial sites in the Stoneham-Plantersville area is the Joel Greenwood Cemetery. Not a single marker now stands of the approximately twenty-five persons who were buried in this area over the years. To find the site, it can be located by going on the highway from Plantersville north on the Anderson road. Go about five miles -- almost opposite the Klein Catholic Church -- to what is now known as the Hamilton Place. After going into the Hamilton Place, go west about a mile or a mile and one-half (over gullies) to a grove of oaks. The site lies almost beneath the High Line that crosses the Hamilton Place. The post numbered No. 573 is almost on the spot. We (Mr. Hamilton, Mrs. Bessie Owen, and myself) found huge gnarled oaks still standing. At that time, June 3, 1958, there was only one marker left in the cemetery -- that of Henry Bailey Greenwood, the father of Joel Greenwood. He was buried there in 1835.

The Greenwood marker was broken; and in 1978, descendants received permission to have it removed and placed in the Stoneham Cemetery where his son, Franklin Jarvis Greenwood, and other members of the Greenwoods are buried. For a while it was thought by present members of the family that Mrs. Henry Bailey Greenwood, who died in 1836, was buried in the Joel Greenwood Cemetery; but one of her descendants from Madison County told her death. She had gone to her daughter’s family in Madison County to help nurse a sick member of the family. She contracted the illness herself, and died in a matter of a few days. When one of her sons went to bring her home, he was met on the road by a relative with the news of her death and burial there.

A list of the persons buried in the Joel Greenwood Cemetery would include:

GREENWOOD, Henry Bailey Native of Virginia, born 1756, died 1835. About 1801 - 1802, began migrating west. 1803 he and family were in Anderson Co., Tenn. Moved to St. Clair Co. area in what is now Missouri, but which at that time was a part of Indiana Territory, later part of Illinois Territory. 1820’s moved southward to Ted River area of Texas, thinking they were in Arkansas. About 1829, moved to area around San Augustine, and to Grimes Prairie in Oct. 1830. (Marker moved to Stoneham. LSS)

GREENWOOD, Joel 1802 - 1841 He and wife came in Greenwood migration to Texas. Was an Austin Colonist, coming in Stephen F. Austin’s Second Colony.

GREENWOOD, Daughter of Joel and Anna Montgomery Greenwood, Born 1830’s, Died as child.

MONTGOMERY, William 1772(3) - 1835 Father of Mrs. Franklin Jarvis Greenwood and Mrs. Joel Greenwood. Was an Austin Colonist, receiving land grant in same migration as Greenwoods.

PIERSON, Major John 1795 - 1849 Native of Union Co., Kentucky. Colonist and surveyor for Sterling Robertson’s Colony. Son-in-law of William Montgomery, having married Elizabeth Montgomery, who died in 1833. She was buried in Independence, Texas Cemetery, thus giving some credence to theory that Joel Greenwood Cemetery had received no burials before perhaps 1835.

PIERSON, Son of Major and Mrs. Piersens.

SHANNON, Owen Brother-in-law to William Montgomery. Married to Margaret Montgomery in Wilkes Co., Georgia, October 22, 1792. Moved to Pecan Point on Red River 1822; 1824 to San Augustine in late 1820’s to area around Montgomery, Texas. Wife not buried beside him (according to some records) because flooding of a creek made it impossible. Died 1854.

BANKS, Martha Dupree Stoneham Widow of Joseph Dillard Stoneham, Jr. She and her husband owned Joel Stoneham Place about time of Civil War. Husband killed in Battle of Mansfield, LA. After his death married a Mr. Banks, overseer of plantation.

STONEHAM, Frank Son of Joseph and Martha Dupree Stoneham. Died as child.
STONEHAM, Son of Joseph and Martha Dupree Stoneham. Died as child.

STONEHAM, Son of Joseph and Martha Dupree Stoneham. Died as child.

MONTGOMERY, James Brother of William Montgomery

MONTGOMERY, Julia Robinson First wife of John Montgomery (oldest son of William Montgomery).

The Kench Saunders family lived on land very close to the Joel Greenwood Cemetery. This writer does not know whether they are buried here or not. Near the cemetery, I found an old chimney and rocks and a chinaberry tree. According to Sebron L. Stoneham, who died in his nineties in the year 1965, these could have been the ruins of the Saunders home. (Stoneham Cemetery LLS)

S. L. Stoneham also told me that the body of a desperado was buried in the Joel Greenwood Cemetery. He said, "It was learned that he (the desperado) was at the Kench Saunders house; so the Sheriff of Grimes County, a Mr. Garrett, disguised himself and went there. He found the desperado; and the Sheriff drew first and killed him. His body was buried in that cemetery.

(Information on some burials in the Joel Greenwood Cemetery was taken from "History of Montgomery County", Robin Montgomery, 1975. LSS)

GRESHAM-ASHFORD-STONE CEMETERY

From HW 6, go 1.7 miles on FM 2988 to gate on left. Follow pasture road to a mobile home on left. The cemetery is east across two electric fences in a grove of trees.

"Mrs. Janie Keelan was a small child in the early 1900's, and remembered when Thomas Gresham was buried in the cemetery. She said this was not a family cemetery, that many families were buried there, that a road once went right in front of the cemetery, and that there was a church nearby. It is thought that it was a Methodist Church."

"Mrs. Mary Jo Gresham Hollas copied inscriptions in August 1979. There must have been many people buried here, for the area is quite large. There are several wire fences still standing around several burial areas, but there are no markers within the fences. There are numerous graves outlined with bricks, and there is a great pile of rocks and concrete stacked up which could contain markers from gravesites." From HERITAGE AND PROGRESS, HISTORY OF GRIMES COUNTY, TEXAS. Compiled and Edited by the Grimes County Historical Commission, 1982.

The graves listed in the 1982 publication had only years of birth and death. This list by Marcus Mallard of Navasota records full dates, if indicated on markers.

GRIMES PRAIRIE CEMETERY

The Grimes Prairie Cemetery, located on Grimes Prairie, is about five miles north of the town of Stoneham. It lies off the road from Stoneham to Anderson, and in now included in the McGee Estate. Entrance would be by the gate into “Monument Hill”. It was situated near the Jesse Grimes home. A marker is nearby with the inscription: “Home of Rosanna Ward Britton Grimes...and Jesse Grimes... In his honor Grimes County was named.” (Grimes County was the western portion of Montgomery County.)

The cemetery has long been abandoned. The last burial seems to have been in 1907. Many of the grave stones are now broken or have been vandalized; therefore, it is hard to assess the number of burials made in the cemetery.
GRIMES, Jesse (February 6, 1788 - 1866) son of Sampson Grimes (born in Virginia on August 10, 1749), and Bathsheba Winden Grimes (born July 3, 1756, in Dublin Co., N.C., daughter of John and Ann Winden of Maryland). In 1817, he left North Carolina and moved to Alabama, where he lived until 1826. While in Alabama he married Martha Smith. They had the following children: Robert Henry (b 1814); Harriet Elizabeth (b1816); M. Perry Alfred Calvin (b 1817 - According to some records, he fell at the Alamo in 1836); Rufus (b 1819 m 2nd Martha Berryman, daughter of William Berryman); Lucinda (1820 d as infant); Jacob (b 1822 d 1855 unmarried); Mary Jane (1823 d in early childhood); William Ward (b 1824); Martha Ann (1824 - Twin to William Ward).

GRIMES, Martha Smith died in 1824, in Alabama; and Jesse Grimes married secondly to Rosanna Ward Britton (1803 - 1870) of Alabama in 1826. She was the daughter of Francis and Mary (Ward) Britton, natives of South Carolina. To this second marriage were born the following children: Gordon (b 1829 d in childhood); Harvey (1831 - 1854); Leonard (d in childhood); Helen (b 1835 m 1st John H. Bowen (1832 - 1878), 2nd _____ Gannaway, no issue); Emily (1838 m 1st John H. Bowen (1832 - 1878), 2nd _____ Gannaway, no issue); Nancy (b 1840 m Charles Ehlinger d 1897 Grimes Co.).

HIGH POINT ROAD CEMETERY

Alix Taylor told John R. Maxwell about this cemetery, as she had spoken to Louis Bohack, who lives about a mile from the site. On January 30, 1995, Louis Bohack and John Maxwell found the site; but no markers remained. Bohack said that about 15 years ago, there was approximately four small tombstones.

To reach site, turn off HW 105 onto County Road 308. The first house on the left is the Louis Bohack home. The road ends at a pasture gate. Go into pasture, and angle left until a fence is reached. Go up hill and cross into adjoining pasture. The site is near a large oak tree as the woods are entered. At one time, a house was to the south of the graves.

HUGHEY CHAPEL CEMETERY

Take HW 105 east out of Navasota. Turn off HW 105 onto FM 1748 and go to County Road 106. Turn left and go to County Road 107, turn right and follow to end of road. Go through gate straight ahead, turn right and follow to pasture road to cemetery. Cemetery was copied on April 27, 1988, by John R. Maxwell of Keith. He was guided to the cemetery by Mrs. Elizabeth Hughey Prestgrove of Navasota, a descendant of the people buried there. According to Mrs. Prestgrove, many markers are missing. A second survey was made by John R. Maxwell on December 26, 1994.

HORLUCK BURIAL SITE

From inscription on Texas Historical Marker, set in 1968, located on site of Navasota Medical Center; site of Freeman Inn. Built by Ira M. Freeman in 1856. Way station and hotel for passengers on several stage lines through the city.

“Freeman House Draws Distinguished Visitors. Across from the house in the Blackshear lot is the grave of a small youngster. The child was a member of a company of players who stayed at Freeman Inn in the spring of 1887. The child became suddenly ill while the troupe was there and died shortly afterwards.” From the Navasota Examiner-Review, Thursday, July 1, 1954.

According to THE NAVASOTA BLUEBONNET, 1954, the child's name and date of death were written in pencil on a door post of the Inn. In 1954 it was still visible.

Died April 27, 1887
Age 13 years

JENKINS CEMETERY

The exact location of this cemetery is unknown. It is in the Joshua Hadley survey which is to the west of Roans Prairie on HW 30. It would appear to me that the cemetery would be between or near the intersection of HW 30 and HW 90.

In a deed executed by John W. and Nancy E. Jenkins (Book F, pages 17 - 18) to J. R. McIntyre on January 28, 1870, they sold 200 acres of land and reserved out of the same 1/2 acre in a square form to include a graveyard.
Those buried here would include the following:

JENKINS, Cyrena 1st wife of John W. Jenkins died in 1858. Her husband applied for letters of administration on her estate in 1859.

JENKINS, John W. died about 1870. Thought to be buried here.

LACY CEMETERY

Turn off HW 105 onto FM 362. At the intersection of FM 362 and FM 2, go 1.6 miles to green gate on right. Enter and follow pasture road 3 miles. Turn left and follow to a clearing. In the clearing will be an overgrown area. Cemetery is in north end. The Lacy graves are enclosed within iron fence. The other graves are behind (east) of fence. The cemetery was copied by Marcus Mallard of Navasota.

LACY, Thomas H.
May 17, 1819 - Nov. 6, 1897

LACY, Eliza Jane

BUTLER, Sallie D.
June 11, 1871 - Oct. 26, 1881
Name on same marker as W. B. Shelton

MAXWELL, Clarke
Dec. 14, 1791 - ____ 27, 1849

At least three other graves
When John R. Maxwell visited cemetery January 11, 1995, he discovered this marker totally buried in dirt.

SHELTON, Louis B.
Died July 6, 1882
Age 76 years 6 months 30 days

Another possible grave could be Elizabeth SHELTON, born 1825 (?), wife of Louis B. Shelton. Rock beside Louis could indicate her grave.

From 1850 census of Grimes County, Texas.

GRAVE OF RENE ROBERT CAVELIER DE LA SALLE

Near the joining of the Navasota and Brazos Rivers is the grave of this French explorer. No marker, no memorial marks his final resting place. In the middle of Washington Avenue in Navasota there is a memorial erected in his memory with the following inscription:

De LA SALLE, Rene Robert Cavelier Sieur Treacherously Slain By His Own Men Near This Spot in March (March 18) 1687. Born Rouen, France, November 22, 1643. Explorer of the Mississippi River. Frontier Statesman -- Empire Builder -- A Nobleman In Rank and Character. Erected by the Texas Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution and the Citizens of Navasota. 1930

He was probably the first European buried in present day Grimes County. JRM

LAURENCE FAMILY CEMETERY

From HERITAGE AND PROGRESS, HISTORY OF GRIMES COUNTY, TEXAS, 1982, with additional data from JoAnne (McGee) Minsky.

From HW 6 take FM 2 east to West Road. Turn right on West Road and go approximately 1 mile, and take first dirt road to left. A pecan tree is almost in the road. Drive through 2 wire gaps. The cemetery is about 1/2 mile NE of a small lake, nestled among a clump of trees on a small hill, enclosed with wire fencing. There are possibly more graves; but these are only markers left.

"Sallie is dead, a child as sweet and fair
As opening rosebud in the morning air.
Round her pure um let darkest cypress wave
Youth could not save her from an early grave
She was lovely, she was fair,
And for awhile was given,
An angel came, and claimed His own,
And bore her home to Heaven."
LAURENCE CEMETERY
Plantersville, Texas

To reach burial ground, go .5 mile west on HW 105 from its intersection with FM 1774 to a paved driveway on right. Turn in drive to Joe Imhoff’s house. Follow drive to left, turn right on dirt road, passing a mobile home on right, continuing across a cattle guard, and through a gate, past a lake, crossing another cattle guard. The old Lawrence homestead site can be seen on left. Continue through a gate and turn left. The cemetery site is to the left. A fallen tree and several thorn trees are on the grave site. According to Joe Imhoff, there were at least three tombstones removed by persons unknown about 1965.

He remembered one stone for the following:

LAURENCE, Henry

Other graves would include:

LAURENCE, James N.
1816 - Dec. 25, 1869

LAURENCE, Nancy Caroline Greenwood

LAURENCE, John William

Nancy and Sarah Greenwood were daughters of Franklin Jarvis Greenwood and Mary Jane Montgomery. There were also wives of James N. Lawrence. His first wife, Nancy Porter Lawrence is buried in Barnes Cemetery, Anderson, Texas.

LAWSON CEMETERY

LOFTIN SLAVE CEMETERY

From Harmony Church and Cemetery on County Road 407, travel west for about 1 mile, and turn right into drive of Jimmy Grice. Follow drive to house. Cemetery is on north fence on Dick Loftin property. (Dick Loftin is deceased.) The exact location of burial site of two slaves is unknown. Data released to John R. Maxwell by Jimmy Grice, on December 27, 1994.

LOST CEMETERY

This cemetery was reported by Eddie Eppler of Navasota. One day he was riding his horse in an adjoining pasture and came across about 3 tombstones.

To reach Mr. Eppler's home you would go down Business HW 6 in Navasota, Texas. Just before you come to HW 6, there will be a drive to the right. Follow to Eppler home.

LOUD CEMETERY
Anderson

Cemetery is located off FM 244. Turn onto County Road 180 and go 1 mile. You will pass the Kennard Cemetery on your right. Go to a metal gate on your left in a curve. Turn and go down pasture drive through a second gate. When you reach the cemetery sign, the cemetery will be to your right a short distance off drive.

Copied on January 28, 1998 by John R. Maxwell of Keith. Other graves with no marker or an unreadable marker were supplied by Annie Loud Roberson of Navasota. There were also several graves that were marked with field stones at head and foot that appeared to be infants. It was thanks to her that the cemetery was located.

McFARLAND CEMETERY

To reach the approximate site of this cemetery, you would go west from the intersection of HW 6 and FM 1227 on 1227. When you come to County Road 326, on the left there will be a driveway to the right. Go down this drive and somewhere to the left is the site of the cemetery. I drove out there on December 30, 1996, and found no site of the cemetery. According to Elliott Goodwin, the graves are near a grove of trees. They number about twelve, but not a single stone of any kind remains.

The following description of this cemetery is given in a deed in which the property around the cemetery was sold on October 18, 1910 to J. M. Bush, by the heirs of Bettie Holland McFarland. They were Bates H., Lily E., Addie A. and Isaac B. McFarland.
"But it is hereby specially provided, and the said J. M. Bush for himself, his heirs, and assigns, that the burial plot or grave yard, consisting of about one-fourth of an acre of land near the former McFarland residence on said farm, shall be preserved and maintained as such; that the trees thereon standing shall not be cut down, nor said land used for other purposes, unless and until all the bodies now interred therein shall have been removed by, or with the consent of, the grantors herein, their heirs or descendants. But this shall not be construed as preventing the said J. M. Bush, his heirs or assigns from using the same plot of ground for purpose of sepulture."

J. M. Bush and wife Minnie are buried in Oakland Cemetery in Navasota, so evidently they did not take advantage of the provisions in this deed.

It is doubtful that Bates McFarland, husband of Bettie McFarland is buried here. In the 1910 census of the state of Texas in El Paso, he is listed, together with daughter Lily E. and son Bates H. Also listed is a Julia McFarland whose identity is unknown to me.

People buried here would include the following:

Various census records of the Holland and McFarland families.

Here we have Bettie Holland, living in her father's household before her marriage to Bates McFarland in 1876, Grimes County, Texas. An unmarked grave in Oakland Cemetery is believed to be that of J. K. Holland. The date of death is May 26, 1898.

McFARLAND, Lilly  age 31 white female born Texas

On this census, two questions arise. Is Julia the wife of Bates Jr., or some other relation? Then too, the ages given for Bates and Julia on the soundex record is 17, which is wrong if indeed this is the son of Bates Sr.

To reach cemetery, turn off HW 2445 onto a cement road. (The Bluebonnet Country entrance is on opposite side.) Go about 1/2 mile to cattle guard with metal bar across it. Turn left over cattle guard, and follow pasture road for 1/2 mile to cemetery on left. This cemetery on Grimes Prairie is surrounded by a metal fence. To reach cemetery, take FM 362 south from FM 2 for 1.1 miles. Cross Beason Creek and turn left into a pasture gate, following narrow road across a cattle guard to another cattle guard on left. Continue down a fence line on left to gate which leads into cemetery. John R. Maxwell was guided by Chester Goodwin on this route.

Cemetery can be reached off County Road 304, but will require some walking. From intersection of FM 362, go about one mile. When road bends to left, go into a driveway. Go through gate, down pasture road to another gate. Continue to another less traveled pasture road to the right. Turn and go .3 mile to lake on left. Park at woods and continue on foot down path cut through bushes and woods. Another path intersects to the right. Take it to cemetery. Enumerator was guided on this route by Pierre Harris and Ray Williams. Copied January 1995.

The story is told about the tombstone of William Nelson Punchard as follows. The gravestone was purchased in Salado, moved to this area by oxen wagon and slaves. Enroute to Plantersville, lightning struck the stone and broke it. It was repaired and was in process of being set and lightning struck it again. It was repaired for a second time and was finally set. The day it was set lightning struck it for a third time and the top of the marker is still off. The slaves refused to help with its repair again.

SAND PRAIRIE CEMETERY
BLACK

Turn off HW 105 west of Navasota onto County Road 424 that begins as a paved road, but is dirt when it bends to the left. Following the road to its end, there is a house on the right. After going through gate beyond the house, there is a metal shed on the right with a gate through which cemetery can be entered. Copied by John R. Maxwell on January 17, 1995.

SAINT MARY'S CEMETERY

On FM 1774 north of Plantersville. Beside Saint Mary's Catholic Church. Copied September 12, 1994, by John R. Maxwell. There are several graves marked with iron crosses in the back of the cemetery. I was informed that many of these mark infants’ graves.

STONEHAM CEMETERY

From “A History of the Stoneham Cemetery”, by Frances Stoneham, written for marking of cemetery by Texas Historical Commission.

Stoneham Cemetery is located 1 1/2 miles from Stoneham on State Highway 105, about 100 yards north of the highway. John H. Stoneham gave the right-of-way to the railroad in 1879, and the town that grew up around the railroad was named in his honor. Since the 1830's, there had been a settlement about 1 1/2 miles from Stoneham that was called High Point; and at that time the cemetery was called High Point Cemetery. The first persons to be buried in the High Point Cemetery was a victim of cholera, the daughter of Franklin Jarvis Greenwood, Sr., who had donated land for the cemetery a few years before. He was a native of Virginia, an Austin colonist who came to Texas in 1829 and received a Spanish land grant, a part of which lay in what was to become High Point community. He built the first Methodist church in the area near his home. Its site was the land now occupied by the Stoneham family plot in the present cemetery.

Several unknown Confederate veterans who became ill and died on their way home from the war lie buried there. Their graves, once marked with large native stones, are just inside the present gate of the cemetery. At one time, several graves of persons who died of yellow fever were marked by large iron bars with corkscrew ends that served as a warning that the graves should never be moved lest another outbreak of fever develop! The graves were south of the big oak in the center of the cemetery.

The earliest provision for the maintenance of the cemetery was the cemetery “working”. As many of the families left the vicinity, a Cemetery Committee was appointed to look after its maintenance. The present committee plans to move the headstone of Susan Stoneham’s mother, Jane Dillard Stoneham, from an abandoned cemetery three miles away and place in the Stoneham Cemetery. This was done in the instance of the monument of Franklin J. Greenwood’s father, Henry Bailey Greenwood.

MONTGOMERY FAMILY

Graves of members of the Montgomery family lie along the fence across from the Stoneham lot and to the east were marked by stones that have been lost or removed. It is believed that at first the Montgomery’s were buried in the Joel Greenwood Cemetery near Plantersville. Montgomery’s and Greenwood’s intermarried; so the Montgomery’s who are buried here would be brothers and sisters of Mrs. F. J. Greenwood, Sr. and their children.

In doing research for the placement of the State of Texas markers for John and Andrew J. Montgomery, veterans of San Jacinto, J. T. Montgomery, descendant of Andrew, believed they were buried in this cemetery. He asked that the markers be placed there, though the graves could not be located.

TUCKER CEMETERY

After passing the entrance to Texas Renaissance Festival on FM 1774 (south of Plantersville), turn right onto an oil field road. Cemetery is on the right. Copied by John R. Maxwell, March 1995.

“Thomas Jefferson Tucker served in the war of Texas Independence under Sam Houston in 1836. He settled on a 160 acre parcel of land in Grimes County south of Plantersville in 1859. He married Mary Ann Brown, daughter of Thomas H. and Asynath Brown, whose property adjoined the Tucker place in 1845. While hunting with his son, Hyman, Thomas Jefferson tripped over a log and was killed by his own gun. He and Mary Ann are buried on ‘the old Tucker place.’” Submitted by Thomas H. Tucker, now of California, HERITAGE AND PROGRESS, HISTORY OF GRIMES COUNTY, TEXAS, 1982. Compiled and edited by Grimes County Historical Commission.

VICKERS FAMILY BURYING GROUND

From HERITAGE AND PROGRESS, HISTORY OF GRIMES COUNTY, TEXAS, 1982, Compiled and Edited by the Grimes County Historical Commission.

The Vickers Cemetery was near the cedar log house of Frank Louis Daves Vickers. The land, owned by Trinston Harris (deceased), is east and north of the home of Trinston Harris, Jr. Markers and slabs of concrete with no inscriptions discernible. The cemetery was rescued from being bulldozed when Trinston, Sr., chanced to be present when a thicket was being cleared soon after he bought the land from Bushman in 1949. He instructed the dozer operator to leave it untouched. A Vickers descendant sent Trinston, Sr., information about the family, and a description of the burying ground-- that there was a cedar tree with a large gopher hole at its base. Harris observed that the tree still stood. It is estimated that the cemetery was used from about 1865 to 1900.

WALKER-COX-SOMERFORD CEMETERY

This cemetery is in the Tandy Walker Survey. His land application dated 1830 shows him to have been 62, and his wife, Mary, to have been 55. He was born in Virginia, may have resided for a time in Kentucky, then moved to Alabama. He may have come to Texas in 1828, with two sons and his wife. Several older children who were married remained in Alabama, some of whom later came to Texas. About 1845, Tandy Walker must have returned to Alabama and died while there. It is believed that he had five children by his first wife, Mary Mays -- Sarah, Mary Jane, Millie, Tandy H., Daniel. After the death of his first wife, he married Delilah Armour, daughter of Robert Armour, by whom he had three children - - Amanda, Elizabeth, John C. (From EARLY HISTORY OF GRIMES COUNTY, E. L. Blair, 1930).

From the 1850 census of Grimes County, Texas

A bit of history of the Yarboro Church and School is as follows. It was supplied by Mrs. Annie Edwards.

The St. Paul Epistle Methodist Church was erected in 1893. It was located south in front of Meineke General Store and between the white school and the Lawrence house. The name of the pastor was Rev. H. S. Watson. Names of the church trustees were George G. Ashford, Washington Calhoun, and Samuel Calhoun. The St. Paul Epistle Church united with Stonehamville Church in 1943.

The Black Yarboro School was located north of Campbell and Meineke General Store across the Country highway and railroad tracks. This school was built on Earl Yarboro place. This school served the community for school purposes and Church purposes until 1948. The site was given to the black community in 1913 by Mr. Earl Yarboro, a good neighbor and a friend to the black community.

Graves listed were supplied by Mrs. Edwards.
