GRIMES COUNTY CEMETERIES

BOOK FOUR

Compiled by John R. Maxwell for the

GRIMES COUNTY HISTORICAL COMMISSION

2000

Based on old records, grave markings and memory, every attempt has been made to compile as accurate a listing of grave sites as possible within Grimes County. If errors were made in the course of our task, we would like to apologize, for none were intentional. Our only goal is to, in some small way, preserve the history of our county, if only in the listing of those who lived and died here.
To the memory of Ruby Vaughn Maxwell, born April 26, 1914, died December 31, 1994. We do fondly dedicate this book number four of Grimes County Graves.

The Grimes County Historical Commission

Let thy servant, I pray thee, turn back again, that I may die in mine own city, and be buried by the grave of my father and of my mother.

II Samuel 19:37

NOLAN CEMETERY
THE LAST MISTOY

This small family cemetery is no longer in existence. To reach the site, turn off Washington Ave. in Navasota onto Brosig. When the street crosses Cedar Creek turn right onto Sycamore St. Then turn right on Cleveland St. which will dead end at the creek. To your right a garage occupies the cemetery site. According to Marcus Mallard the cemetery existed as late as 22 years ago.

People buried in the cemetery would include the following:

NOLAN, James
1805 - 1879

NOLAN, Margaret
wife of James Nolan
age 42 yrs.
- May 1860

NOLAN, Margaret
child of Wm. & Martha
age 2 yrs.
- Oct. 1859

NOLAN, Mary
child of Wm. & Martha
age 8 mos.
- Sept. 1859

NOLAN, David
born 1757 in South Carolina
father of James Nolan
died between (1850 - 1858)

The William Nolan mentioned is a son of James Nolan 1805 - 1879
This family had it’s beginning in Fairfield District, S. C. In the 1810 census David Nolan and his family were listed therein. By 1850 they were in Alabama and by 1855 in Navasota, Tx. Listed in the 1850 census of Alabama in the household of James Nolan was his father David Nolan age 93 years old.

The following with a small addition was taken from the book “The Navasota Bluebonnet” written by Miss Maurine Chinski in 1954.

James Nolan built his first real home about 1855 on Brosig St. on the site of the present school Auditorium. It was a double log house. He sunk a 60 foot water well on the corner of the place. It was such a strong current of water that people came from all around and hauled the water away in barrels. He also built a log cabin under a big oak tree. It was still standing in 1954. Here the negro women who worked the crop left their babies on pallets and at intervals one or another would return to see about them. Aunt Marie Nolan (negro) went in one morning and found her baby dead, a wildcat had gotten in and eaten the baby's face entirely away. James Nolan died at the dinner table of a sudden stroke in 1879. He had given generously of his substance for the improvement of the town and had enjoyed business successes, but he died a poor man.

The Aunt Marie Nolan mentioned above lived to be around 100 yrs. old. She and her baby might be other graves in the family cemetery. Often the burial place of slaves or former slaves were buried near the graves of their former masters.

Other date on the Nolan Family:

HOLLAND CEMETERY
HOLLAND CEMETERY

This cemetery is probably the same as the BERRYMAN CEMETERY near Anderson which is used as a negro cemetery. The Hollands and the other family members listed here were white and were among the early settlers of what is today Grimes County. They arrived from Louisivana in 1822 and settled on Ten Mile Creek, known today as Holland Creek west of present day Anderson on Hwy. 90. The following information for the most part was taken from the book, “Early History of Grimes County” by E. L. Blair. He stated that by 1838 all of the Holland males were deceased. Data also taken from the book, “Heritage and Progress, A History of Grimes county, Texas” published in 1982 by the Grimes County Historical Commission.

Note that all of these graves are unmarked. People buried here would include the following.

HOLLAND, Francis
 died 1834

 died Spring 1838 on a surveying expedi-
dition.

HOLLAND, Tapley
 son of Francis Holland
 died at the Alamo March 6, 1836.
 Following the battle the Mexicans had
 the bodies of the defenders burned.
 Therefore his remains would be near that site.

* in Book Two of Grimes County Graves there is a John Vandine pg. 12 listed in the 1850 census with Robert Barker and Family. Would be in what is today the Iola area. Robert Barker buried on his homeplace west of Iola.

PETEERSON, John
son of Mary Holland Fisher Peterson
born - 1808

PETEERSON, Mary Holland Fisher
sister of Francis & William Holland

FISHER, John
son of Mary Holland Fisher Peterson

FISHER, Wesley
son of Mary Holland Fisher Peterson. He is said to have moved away from the other family members who settled around Holland Creek. In probate records of Grimes County there is a Wesley Fisher who died about 1848 in Bedias area. He owned land on Bedias Creek which had belonged to his father Job Fisher. He and his wife Mary had no children. At the time of the probate in Jan. 1849 her name was Mary Kinkimann.

INGRAM PLACE CEMETERY
This small cemetery as time progresses will become even more difficult to locate. On January 24, 1999 the site was visited by Richard Grissett of Iola and Joh Ray Maxwell of Keith.

To reach the site go south on Hwy. 39 south from Iola to County Rd. 156. Turn left and follow road to railroad tracks. Cross and go through gate and follow pasture road. When you see a large metal building go left and go toward a camper. Go southwest from camper toward railroad in woods to a clearing. The graves are all marked with rocks for headstones. According to Mrs. Jack Crouch who lives on Hwy. 39 there was once a Baptist Church near the graves. She gave us the following names of people buried in the cemetery. The property is currently owned by Bobby Ingram.
CROUCH, Bill
son of Willice & Beaulah Crouch

CROUCH, Bernice Laverne daughter of Willice & Beaulah Crouch

SNOOK, Child
of Jake & Frances Snook

PETEETE, Sallie

ROBERSON, Children
of Louch Roberson

LITTLE LOST CEMETERY
This cemetery which contains two graves is located off FM 3090 on County Rd. 190. To reach the approximate site turn off 3090 onto County Road 190 and go about 1/2 mile to the first house on the left. From there go southwest into the pasture toward the home of Mrs. C. D. Arrington. About halfway between the first house and a small barn on the Arrington property would be the approximate site of the graves. Mrs. Arrington states that the land belonged to her grandfather J. D. Moody Sr. Before him the property was owned by Ward Templeman of Navasota. The graves would date to before the Moody’s purchased it in the 1880’s.

YELLOW FEVER EPIDEMIC

In 1867 Navasota was still recovering from the loss suffered in the War Between the States and a cholera epidemic that hit in 1866. During that epidemic, 30 people died. Many of these were Negroes. Another even more disastrous epidemic occurred in 1867. Yellow fever spread through the town, whose population was close to 3000. (Only a very few negroes died of yellow fever.)

The government fell into disarray when Mayor W. E. Jones fled the town. Many other residents fled in the wake of the epidemic following the example of their mayor. Assuming the duties of Mayor became the task of R. H. Geisel. He served in the capacity of mayor with great strength during a time of much turmoil.

Many people began to help each other and came to the aid of those victims in need of medical attention. Dr. J. H. Baylor returned to his home one night, after administering to the sick, suffering from the disease himself. He took a cup of castor oil, wrapped himself in a blanket, and after a twenty-four hour period he had sweated the disease out of his body. He then went back to his medical duties helping the ill. Isadne Bock, F. W. Brosig and Joseph Brooks nursed the sick and cared for the dead.

Mr. Brooks and Joseph Backloupe made coffins day and night. Boxes of rough lumber were used in the construction of these coffins. The victims were wrapped in a sheet or blanket, placed in the coffins, and buried at once.

After the disease had run its course the results were astounding. Of a growing city of close to 3000, there now was a town of only 400. Many of these people had died as a result of the epidemic. Others who made up those statistics had simply run away from the deadly affliction. These residents soon began to return to their homes to begin rebuilding not only their own lives, but the life of the town of Navasota.

Information received from the Navasota Examiner Centennial Edition from an article written by Miss Maurine Chinski.

1867 YELLOW FEVER VICTIMS

Dr. Andrew R. Kilpatrick, who came to Navasota in 1865 to practice medicine, wrote the following letter to the New Orleans "Picayune."

Enclosed I send you a list kept and prepared by me of deaths occurring at this place, mostly of yellow Fever. As your paper is extensively circulated, and our town is made up of a collection of people from many states you will confer a favor by giving the names a place in your columns. In the list are embraced 24 who have died in the country and 23 negroes. More than half the people left the town about the 24th and 25th of August leaving about 1100 in town, nearly all subject to the fever, and only a dozen, or so escaped it. Only three black negroes died, the other colored persons were mulatoes or griffs.

From the cattle guard go about 300 feet down drive and turn right into pasture to a group of cedar trees and crepe myrtles.

People buried there would include the following:

Maxwell) made this trip on with John Hartman on a "mule" Follow road down into gullies and up steep hills. After forever you will come to a green deer stand. Turn left and go to a large tree which is near the two graves.

Lillie Suggs  Jan. 25, 1874---Oct. 16, 1908

Mrs. Sylvia Thomas  Feb. 17, 1882--December 24, 1908

It would be best to contact Mike Creager telephone # 979-777-1477 as the directions may be somewhat vague. He lives near the property on which the graves are located.

There was once a railroad that crossed the pasture and Mike suggests that the two women might have been wives of possible workers.

A search of the death records of Grimes County for these two ladies revealed nothing. Likewise a search of newspaper records failed to produce an obituary.

Must mas search tax records for this time period for either them or possible husbands with surname Suggs and Thomas.

This burial site is located in a very remote part of land now owned by Oliver Hill of Conroe. It was shown to Mark Holmes and John R. Maxwell in September 2005 by his daughter Lisa Hill of Anderson. The directions to the grave site are as follows:

Lisa told us that this grave was that of an overseer of her ancestor, General James W. Barnes who owned this land and that the man liked this part of the plantation and requested that he be buried there.

The name of the overseer is unknown. His grave is marked with a sandstone rock.
